1-C. Single Drive System

If you are using a Single Drive system, the program will self modify and l ask you to insert the proper disk as necessary for the self modification ocess.

During the operation of AUTO ATLAS you will be required to change ks in the following cases:

Going from DISK #1 Main Menu to:

I. Main Routes
II. Mileage-Time-Cost Computations
III. DISK #2 Main Menu

When using the Trip Planner (after selecting city of destination)

1-D. Two Drive Systems

If you are using a Two Drive System the program will self modify itself d will run the Main Menu on DISK #1. It will not be necessary for you to ll the disks from either drive.

OTE: The self modifying process will occur only the first time you use the ogram. To re-run this process see section 1-E – 'Changing Systems'.

1-E. Changing Systems

Should at any time you need to change from either a Single Drive to a wo Drive System or from a Two Drive to a Single Drive System, follow s procedure:

rst – using DISK #2 type:
'LOAD HELLO 3' (return)
cond – save on DISK #1 by typing:
'SAVE HELLO, D1 (return)
ird – without removing DISK #1 type:
'RUN' (return)

The original booting program will again be run and you should follow the ooting and Re-entry instructions in section 1-B.

Section 2

The Commands

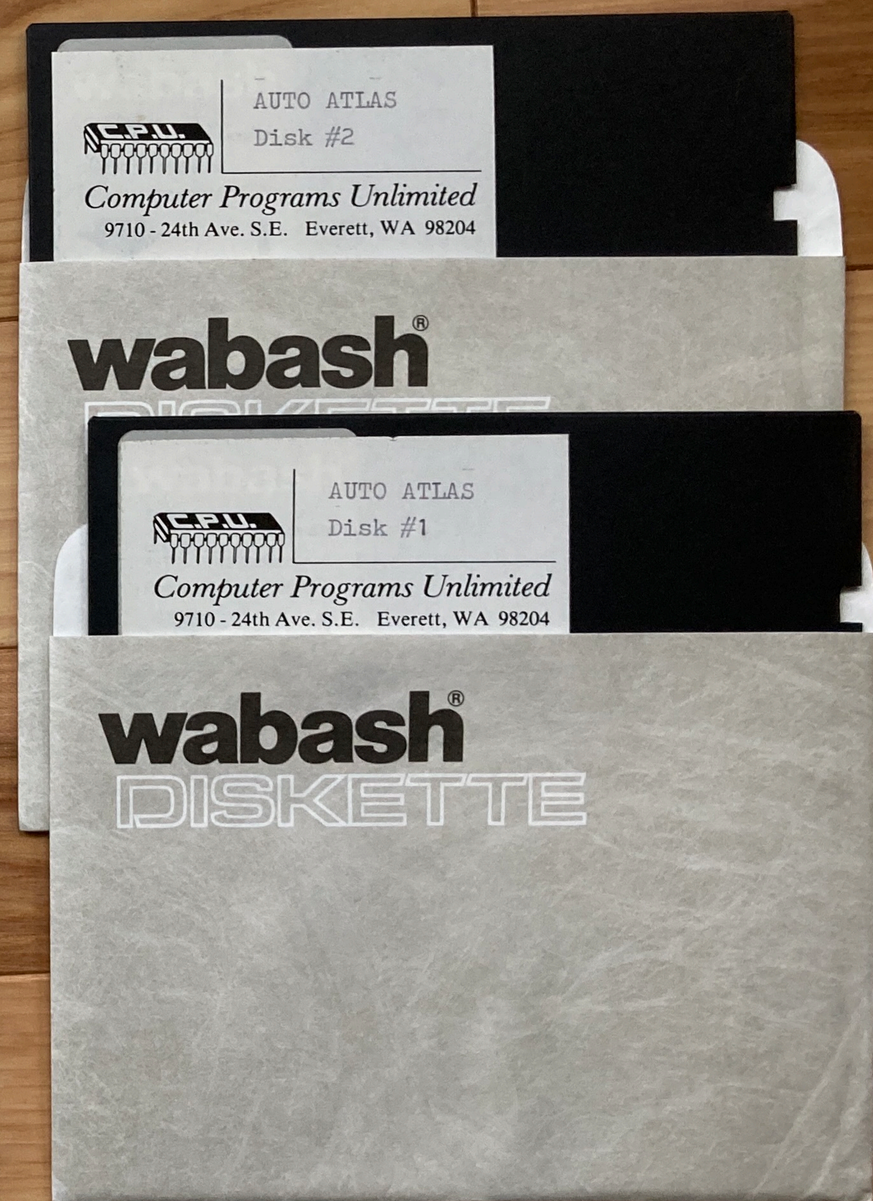
Table 1 gives listings of the Main Menu commands available on both disks.

TABLE 1 – THE COMMANDS

1). . .STATE INFORMATION
2). . .MAIN ROUTES
3). . .MILEAGE-TIME-COST COMPUTATIONS
4). . .TRIP PLANNER
5). . .OTHER DISK MAIN MENU

2-A. State Information

When selecting this option you will be given the option of entering the state by typing the state name (full correct spelling required) or by centering a blinking cursor (x) over the dot in the center of a state on the map of the United States. You may then view the state you have chosen by hitting the space bar. The state (and possibly adjoining states) will appear on the screen. At this time you now have the following options:

I. View information on state
(space bar)
II. Identify cities (using cursor)
(c)
III. Return to Main Menu (return)


These options will remain available until you Return to the Main Menu.
